MRS. TIMOTHY LEE CARTER
the former Miss Cynthia Ann Jenkins

Wed in Afternoon Ceremony

The wedding of Miss Cynthia Ann Jenkins of Lynchburg, and Mr. Timothy Lee Carter of Lynchburg, took place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, Saturday, December 23, at Thomas Road Baptist Church, Lynchburg, with the Dr. James E. Moon of Lynchburg, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Jenkins of Lynchburg, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Carter of Lynchburg.

A selection of nuptial music was provided by organist Wayne Campbell of Lynchburg, who accompanied soloist Don Norman of Lynchburg.

The altar was decorated with a Christmas decoration of a candelabra with red candles surrounded by pine, holly, palms, and poinsettias.

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. The bride wore a white organza gown in an empire waisted style, tied with a satin bow. The gown's high jeweled neckline was an inlay of French imported chantilly lace, scattered with pearls. Lace appliques trimmed the bishop sleeves. Crystal pleated organza ruffles trimmed the neckline and cuffs. A crystal pleated flouce graced the skirt and flowed back into a chapel length train. Her bandeau cap was tiny detail of laces and pearls. The fingertip length veil was scalloped on the edges with brussels embroidery. She carried a formal cascade of red and white rose buds and baby's breath centered with a white orchid spilling over a white prayer book.

The groom wore a white tuxedo.

The attendants' gowns followed a Christmas theme of colors. Matron of Honor was Mrs. Delly O'Brien of Appomattox, who wore a forest green knit with a flowing skirt and a graceful float edged in soft forest green maribou. She carried a candle bouquet of red roses, holly, white frosted pine, and carnations.

Attendants were Mrs. Willie Craft of Appomattox, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Tim Moore of Lynchburg, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Jerry Carter of Roanoke, sister-in-law of the groom. They wore identical gowns of Christmas red with matching ruffled floats complementary to that of the Matron of Honor. They carried bouquet's idential to that of the Matron of Honor.

Mr. Robert E. Carter was his son's best man. Groomsmen were Mr. Billy Franklin of Appomattox, cousin of the bride; Mr. Jerry Carter of Roanoke, brother of the groom; and Mr. Barry Burton of Winston Salem, North Carolina, who all wore forest green tuxedo's identical to that of the bride's father.

Miss Janet Austin of Appomattox, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a white floor length dress trimmed in red lace which tied in the back with a red bow.

Master Michael Franklin of Appomattox, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer and wore a vested knit suit of forest green.

The mother of the bride wore a floor length gown of pale pink chiffonette, with a flowing pleated skirt and matching float accented with a white orchid.

The mother of the groom wore a floor length gown of blue knit, with a matching coat which tied with a neck bow, accented with a white orchid.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. Billy Franklin of Appomattox, attended the guest register. The cake was served by Mrs. David Austin and Mrs. Roger Franklin, both of Appomattox. Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Marshall Goin of Appomattox and Mrs. Sylvia Glass of Lynchburg.

The wedding was directed by Mrs. Betty Tuck of Lynchburg.

The bride is a graduate of Rustburg High School and is employed by Babcock and Wilcox Company.

The groom is a graduate of E. C. Glass High School and is also employed by Babcock and Wilcox Company.

After a wedding trip, the couple will live in Lynchburg.

Jordan News

On the first Sunday in January (Jan. 7) at 3 o'clock the Peaceful Grove Community Gospel Chorus will be singing here for the benefit of the Sunday School. The public is urged to attend this program.

Deacon Jack Lamberth wishes to thank each and every person for their visits, cards, prayers and donations while he was in the hospital and since his return home. May God richly bless each person who thought of him in his time of sickness.

We, the members of this community, are also glad to welcome Deacon Lamberth back home.

Annual UDC Dinner Meeting

The Appomattox Chapter, United Daughters of Confederacy, held its annual Christmas dinner meeting Thursday evening at Maude's Restaurant in Appomattox.

Guest speaker for the dinner meeting was Mr. Ronald Wilson, Historian at Appomattox Court House National Historial Park.

Mr. Wilson related in an interesting way the development of the NOW Appomattox Park Service.

He recalled the many obstacles which were responsible for the delay, two of which were World War 11 and the Korean War.

He also gave the names of many people on national and local levels who were prominent in this historical achievement which has put Appomattox on the map.

The meeting was well attended by members and guests.

Mr Lena Eversole returned thahks for the food.

The meeting concluded when Mrs. Harriett Cunnningham, president, led the group in singing Christmas carols.

Mr. and Mrs. Ormond Leslie McCann

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Edith M. Hall to Ormond Leslie McCann took place at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, November 25, 1978, in Appomattox at the home of Mrs. Clyde Burrell, sister of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. E. L. McIntosh and the late Nina A. McIntosh. The groom is the son of Mrs. Ida W. McCann and the late James A. McCann.

The Rev. Ron Hawkin, interim pastor of Appomattox Baptist Temple, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of ivory. The stand-up collar, sleeves, front and back yoke were of antique lace. Her veil of illusion fell from a satin bow accented with white roses with blue baby's breath and she carried a bouquet of white sweetheart roses accented with blue baby's breath.

Miss Melody Carol Hall of Appomattox, daughter of the bride, was maid of honor and the only attendant. She wore a floor length gown of blue and a hat trimmed with lace and satin ribbon matching that of the bride's gown. She carried a chrysmum accented with white baby's breath.

Archie C. McCann of Lynchburg, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Doris Burrell was hostess and was assisted by Mrs. Norman Martin, Mrs. Bessie Motley, Mrs. Sue Bitner and Mrs. Diana Harvey.

After a northern wedding trip, the couple are making their home in Appomattox.
